NUMBER 24

NEW RECTOR COMING.

The Rev. H. K. Coleman, who has been called to the temporary Rectorship of St. Peter's Episcopal church, of Paris, commencing April 1, for the first and third Sunday of each month, will hold a brief service on Wednesday night, March 22, at 7:30 o'clock. Each member of the church is requested to be present to meet Mr. Coleman.

SPRING AND SUMMER HEAD ATTIRE.

The opening of Mrs. Corne Watson Baird's Spring and Summer Millinery on Saturday, March 31st, will mark another epoch in the history of Twentieth Century merchandising. No expense or energy has been spared by this tasteful lady this season to make this the smartest and most complete showing of millinery ever shown in this section. Everything you will find to be new, hats, flowers, foliage and ornamentations are daily being received from the great Eastern markets, and will present an array of enchanting beauty. Not a hat in her entire assortment, from the most expensive to the more moderate priced, but what will call forth ecstatic praise from all who will see them. Then too, the two hundred "Johnnie Jones" sailors will be the rage and you will only have to see to buy. Don't forget the date, Saturday, March 31st. Mrs. Baird and corps of artists will be on hand from early morn to late in the evening to give you a hearty welcome and show you everything.

WORK COMMENCED.

Work on the Interurban extension was commenced Saturday, notwithstanding the inclement weather. This was made necessary from the fact that the franchise would have expired today. All material is on hand to complete the job and the work will be rushed to an early completion.

A. J. Winters & Co. will move April 1st to their new store room, five doors below their old stand.

"SINGING SKULE," HOSPITAL BENEFIT.

The large cast of about forty people to take part in the "Singing Skule Benignment" at the Opera House next Friday night, March 30th, for the benefit of the hospital fund has been selected and rehearsals are being held every

The Old Fiddler. night. Among the funny characters to be seen is that of "Zebulon Toodles" which will be played by Mr. Robert Frank. Seats on sale at Oberdorfer's Thursday morning.

RELIEVED FROM COAL FAMINE.

The arrival of several cars of coal in Paris Saturday relieved what threatened to be a serious coal famine in our city. Several dealers were entirely out and others found themselves with but a very small supply, being forced to cut all orders to the minimum.

TEXAS SWEETHEARTS

Tells a story of life, love, hatred, jealousy and self-sacrifice in the State of Texas. One of the leading actors is pretty "Texas Raymond," for whose heart several are striving, thus giving the new title of the play its double meaning. It is full of pathos, comedy and excitement and teaches a splendid moral lesson. It is not a cheap blood and thunder affair and will be seen at the Grand to-night.
